Exercise of rights

At any time, in compliance with Articles from 15 to 17 of GDPR, the data subject can exercise the right to:

- 1) Request the confirmation of the existence or non-existence of their own personal data;
- 2) Obtain information on the purposes of processing, categories of personal data, recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be communicated and, if possible, the retention period;
- 3) Obtain the correction and deletion of the data;
- 4) Obtain restriction of processing;
- 5) Obtain data portability, such as receiving their personal data from the data controller, in a structured format, commonly used and readable by automatic device, and transmitting it to another data controller without hindrance;
- 6) Oppose the processing at any time, also in the case of processing for communication purposes;
- 7) Request the data controller to access personal data, correct or cancel them or limit their processing, or to oppose their processing, in addition to the right to obtain data portability;
- 8) Withdraw the consent at any time without prejudice to the lawfulness of the treatment based on the consent given prior to the revocation;
- 9) Object to the processing of their personal data for direct marketing purposes.

You can exercise your rights with a written request to the aforementioned data controller at the following e-mail address: gdpr@jps.hr.

Data controller will respond to requests without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests.

Information will be provided free of charge. Where requests from a data subject are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, the controller will charge a reasonable fee, taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information communication.
